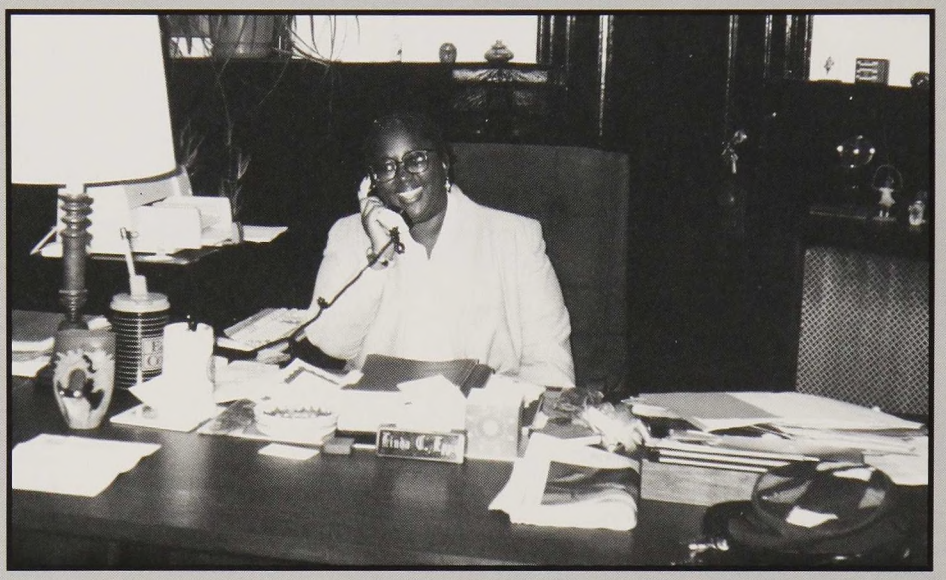
We Struggle
We Strive
We Succeed



Linda C. Epps

As Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students, Linda Epps recognizes the struggles of students. She makes every attempt to acknowledge and solve students' problems. It is her identification with each student's eagerness and desire to learn while coping with daily life that makes her an exceptional person. It is because of her ability to look beyond the problems and to help each of us individually, that we dedicate the 1995 Yearbook to Linda C. Epps.

Dean Epps can also identify with the aspect of striving. She has been involved in education at Bloomfield College for the last 19 years. She began her career at Bloomfield as an adjunct instructor. Since 1983, she has held several positions at the College including Assistant Director and Curriculum Coordinator for the Upward Bound Program, Coordinator and Lecturer for Freshman Core, Assistant Dean of Academic Advising, and Interim Dean of Students. In 1991, she was named Dean of Students and, in 1992, Vice President for Student Affairs.

Linda dedicates herself to all the students at Bloomfield College. It is her desire that all students be encouraged to succeed. Her history in education and at Bloomfield College makes her deserving of the title "successful." It is through her example and her support that we, the students of Bloomfield College, are encouraged to struggle, to strive, and to succeed with dignity and pride.

BLOOMFIELD COLLEGE
Class of 1995

We selected We Struggle, We Strive, We Succeed as the theme for our yearbook because we feel it is reflective of the students at Bloomfield College. We Struggle - many of us have had to overcome obstacles to come to college; financial problems, family responsibilities and obligations and, in some cases, academic pressures. Once here, We Strive - we seek extra help from our professors and fellow students, we attend workshops and seek help at Learning Support, we spend our time in the library, the computer lab, and the science labs applying ourselves to our goal. We Succeed - we the Bloomfield College Class of 1995 have reached our goal and are receiving our Bachelor's Degree. For some this is only a step; we are already looking ahead to earning our Master's Degree and Ph.D. For others we are going to enter the work force in our chosen fields. Whatever we choose to do we will go forward in our decisions with the knowledge that only after we have struggled and strived can we know the genuine feeling of success. We congratulate the Class of 1995.

Office of the President

Dear Class of 1995:

Congratulations on your achievement. You have worked hard to earn your college degree and I commend each of you for realizing your goals.

You are departing with the skills, the knowledge and the values you will draw upon for the rest of your life. I know you will use your Bloomfield College education to make informed personal choices and I am confident that you will not close your eyes to the needs of others.

If you face the future with the commitment you brought to your work here, you will surely be successful.

Please stay in touch with alma mater. Let us know where you are and how you are doing. I hope you will come back and visit often.

I extend to each of you my congratulations and best wishes.

Sincerely,

John F. Noonan

Senior Quotes

Samuel Alcine
"In memory of my father, 'This "BS is for you, Dad. I couldn't have done it without you."

Juanita Melanie Barlow
"I would like to thank God, and my mother and father for making this possible. Special thanks to Dr. Powley."

Desaray Brunson
"Peace and Happiness to the class of 1995, and a big shout-out to all my sorors of Sigma Gamma Rho. Love you Mommy, Ernest, Dominique, Donte, Matthew, and my two sisters."

Jowayne M. Bucci
"My sister once told me 'Oh the places you'll go'. Now that I've graduated from college, I see that I've only begun my life's adventures.'

Ana Castillo
"Thank you Mom, Dad and everyone who has supported me."

Jennifer Cordano
"When you find a dream inside your heart, don't ever let it go. For dreams are the tiny seeds from which tomorrows grow... Mom & Dad you've made my dreams come true, I love you. To my sisters of Sigma Phi Delta, I love you all, thanks for the memories-sisters forever!"

Una G. Foust
"This part-time resident student is outta here! Congratulations to the class of 1995. Good Luck!"

Asante Fulcher
"Just because you're strong doesn't mean you can let other people depend on you too much. It's not fair to them, because when you can't be what they want, they're disappointed, and you feel bad." Audre Lorde "I love you Kendra."

Tara Geraci
"The reward for work well done is the opportunity to do more."

Donna Gioffre
"You can control your destiny."

Tracy Gross
"The greatest thing in this world is not so much where we are, but what direction we are moving." Oliver Wendall Holmes

Jerel Hall
"Knowledge is infinite. Ignorance is abundant. If you choose to run away from the knowledge, be aware that ignorance will slowly catch up with you."

Annie Hayes
"Thank Jehovah, my brain is still alive."

Iola Hines
"Success is the result of determination and hard work."

Sharon Hockaday
"Anything is possible with a dream, the will, the determination and the ultimate faith in God."

Doreen Joan Kassa
"If you can imagine it, you can achieve it; if you can dream it, you can become it; and if at first you do succeed...try to hide your astonishment."

Jennifer Krakow
"Like sands through the hourglass...so are the days of our lives." "Thanks Dad, Mom, John and Mary. I love and miss you Dad. Thanks for getting me where I am today."

Wendi L. Kropinack
Thanx 2 everyone who helped me get where I am today. I couldn't do it without you! I love you Mom and Dad, thanx for your belief in me. Sisters of Sigma Phi Delta, I did it, I'm out and I love you guys; "Sisters forever!"

Natacha LaFortune
"I give my accomplishment and hard work to the Lord God for without Him I couldn't have made it. Thank you, Jesus, mom, dad and my entire family."

Mirna Larue
"Baby Girl," "4 years of hard work, determination and faith has brought me happiness, strength and most important a goal reached."

Eric Arnold Lee
Thanks, mom."

Arnise L. Lewis
"I would like to give a shout out to Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority and all my sorors, and to the class of 1995 and also to my parents who I dedicate this to."

Faye Mayo-Fedd
"Life is filled with challenges, and if you face those challenges one day at a time, nothing is impossible!"

Nichole Nelson
"Don't accentuate the negative, accentuate the positive."

Kerrie Powers
"I made it! Thanks to all my family and friends who supported me. Special thanks goes to W.S., M.C., and the admissions staff and S.G., T.C., K.R., M.L.B., and all faculty. I'll miss you all! Good-bye! Sayonara! Adios! I'm outta here, gotta go. So long, farewell B.C."

Michael W. Rementer
"It's been four long years and I've grown quite a bit. But now I am finished, and I'm done with it. I'd like to thank all those who helped me make it through. I want you all to know, I couldn't have done it without you!"

Denise Ana Rivier
"Thank you mom and dad. Love you both."

Zena Dolores Shelly
"To the family, thanks for your support."

Yolanda Renee Stevens
"Thanks to my family for all of your love and support."

Darrin J. Troccoli
"Life...the best gift of all. My greatest lesson learned...to be yourself and not to worry what others think. To love and respect ourselves is the best way to love others."

Mary L. Turk
"The lord is my shepherd I shall not want." Psalms:23

Dawn Wildman
"Time to close this chapter of my life - thank God!"

Carolyn Rose Vadala
"Renew your Brilliance. It is the privilege of the Phoenix. Excellence grows old and so does fame. Custom wears down our admiration, and a mediocre novelty can conquer the greatest eminence in its old age."
"So be reborn in courage, in intellect, in happiness, and in all else. Dare to renew your brilliance, dawning many times, like the sun, only changing your surroundings."
"Withhhold it and make people miss it; renew it and make them applaud." Gracian Y. Morales, Baltasar

The Deacons compiled a 14-13 record under coach Bob Cordero. The campaign concluded in the first round of the CACC tournament when the Deacons dropped an overtime decision to Caldwell College.

Guards Ken Rivera, Viet Ngugyen and Craig Kearney, center Kevin Moore, and forward Keith Collins had strong seasons for the Deacons.

The Lady Deacons' season took them all the way to Oregon where they competed in the NAIA Division II National Tournament.

The Lady Deacons defeated Caldwell 63-47 for the CACC title and the national tournament berth. Bloomfield lost its first round game to Concordia (Wics.), the sixth-rated team in the country, but it could not dampen a season filled with highlights.

Coach Don Manfria guided the Lady Deacons to a 21-8 record.

Senior Barbie Holland capped an All-American career as the team's leading scorer and the CACC Players of the Year. Junior Lynette Hester-Bey was named Most Outstanding Player in the CACC Tournament, while freshman Olisa Small was honored as the League's Newcomer of the Year.

The Bloomfield College baseball team struggled through a difficult season, but there were some bright spots among the players.

Mike Salvanto, a sophomore first baseman, was a solid cleanup hitter for the Deacons. Among the other top players for the Deacons have been Michael Alfano, a catcher who did not play the last two seasons due to injury.

Third baseman C.J. Rott had a good year batting ahead of Salvanto in the lineup.

The Bloomfield College softball team, a young, improving squad, took part in a successful season that included some valuable postseason experiences.

The Lady Deacons made it to the second day of the Central Atlantic Collegiate Conference Tournament, but was eliminated in a 4-3 loss to Teikyo Post.

The Lady deacons had won two of three games in the tourney's opening day to advance, including an 8-1 win over Teikyo Post and a 6-2 victory over Caldwell. Kris Innocent was the winning pitcher in both games.

The lady Deacons were led by top hitters Melissa Mallen, Kristine Innocent and Melisa Prestianni. Mallen led the team with a .427 batting average. Innocent batted .387 while Prestianni hit .365.

Kristine Greenhalgh, Claudia Murphy and Christina Rafalko each batted at least 300, while Innocent, Pam Barlow and Jen Gaynord handled the pitching chores.
